

PRESS RELEASE

EXPLORE EUROPE FOR LESS WITH INTERRAIL THIS SPRING: PROMOTION NOW ON!

Spring promotion offers travellers of all ages 15 percent reduction on Interrail Global Pass

UTRECHT, the Netherlands, 1 February 2016 – Until 31 March 2016 Interrail is offering European based customers 15 percent off the standard price of all Interrail Global Passes, allowing travellers to maximise the warmer spring months and explore up to 30 countries in Europe.

“Following a similar promotion in 2015, we witnessed the popularity of travelling in the quieter spring period as more people discover the benefits of travelling before the busy summer period starts. Many European public holidays also take place in spring, meaning it’s easier for people to take a break from day to day life, relax and explore the best of Europe”, says Silvia Görlach, Eurail Group G.I.E.’s Sales and Marketing Manager.

Customers who purchase an Interrail Global Pass for either 1st or 2nd Class at the special reduced rate before 31 March can choose to start their journey in Europe any day up until 16 May 2016. With Pass validities ranging from 5 days to 1 month, including the new 7 days in 1 month Flexi Pass, Interrail Global Passes enable travellers, both young and old, to create their own itinerary based on their personal interests, timetable and budget.

“Spring is when Europe comes into bloom. Destinations in Europe kick start the season with special events like La Feria de Abril in Seville, King’s Day celebrations and flower festivals in Amsterdam, St. Patricks Day in Ireland, and the bustling Brighton Festival in England”, adds Ms Görlach. Interrail Global Pass holders looking for sunshine following the cooler winter months, have the option to travel by rail to destinations along the Mediterranean coastline or Southern Spain where warmer temperatures are on offer.

Interrail Passes are available for purchase via local European railways at stations across Europe and at www.interrail.eu.
