GetYourGuide and Interrail team up for European partnership

From a walking tour of Ancient Rome to a fast track entrance ticket to the Sagrada Familia, over 17,000 tours and excursions across Europe to be offered to Interrail Pass holders through Interrail.eu and the Rail Planner App

BERLIN / UTRECHT 25 May 2018 – In partnership with GetYourGuide, the leading booking platform for travel activities, Interrail Pass holders can now book more than 17,000 activities across Europe at a discounted price, including destination tours and excursions, via the Interrail channels.

Providing its leisure customers with access to a full suite of passes known for a borderless European rail travel experience in and through up to 30 different European countries, Interrail has now integrated into its booking process a reservation tool allowing its customers to book the vast selection of GetYourGuide activities – ranging from skip-the-line tickets at major attractions to custom walking tours crafted by a local expert. Want to take a hot air balloon ride over the gently rolling hills and vineyards of Tuscany? Mountain bike in the Algarve Hills with a local guide? Learn the secrets of authentic French cooking with a local chef in the heart of Paris? GetYourGuide and Interrail have got you covered for a unique lifetime experience.

The new partnership with GetYourGuide means Interrail customers can now enjoy a fully integrated travel experience, from the trip planning phase to the tours and activities once they have reached their destinations. Reservations can be made as soon as customers have booked their Interrail Pass or at a later stage, through Interrail.eu and the free Interrail Rail Planner App. GetYourGuide offers Interrail passengers the flexibility to plan tours and activities when it suits them, from up to two years in advance to less than 24 hours' notice, giving spontaneous travellers and planners the freedom and flexibility to book their experience both before they go or when they are at destination. Most of the tours have paperless tickets, allowing mobile users to simply scan a QR code for entry.

Commenting on the new partnership GetYourGuide's COO Tao Tao says: “In building strong partnerships, we always look for brands with a finger on the pulse of what today’s traveler desires, and an eye toward what they’ll fancy tomorrow. Interrail stands for unlimited travel within Europe. Therefore we are more than happy about the partnership and are looking forward to offer even better travel experiences to our customers”.

Silvia Fischer, Sales & Marketing Director for Eurail Group, the company behind the Interrail Pass, said: “We are delighted to welcome a partnership with such an innovative, customer-centric provider as GetYourGuide. This partnership allows us to meet our international customers’ needs through a growing portfolio of benefits and discounts on offer throughout Europe enabling people to create their own unique story. We strive to add value to the overall customer experience, to help our travellers get the most out of exploring Europe, from the trip planning and travel phase, and in the destination itself”.
